

Is green ivy publishing review a scam?

Getting published is every author's dream and there are many companies like Green Ivy Publishing that offer all the assistance and guidance required to do so. Many novice authors and poets have benefited from their expert advice which is evident from many happy and satisfied clients all over the web. This makes us question the authenticity of the negative green ivy publishing review. Rarely is there a company that provides such prompt service with every personal detail.

Many of the former clients revealed during this green ivy publishing review how thorough guidance is provided. First time authors need every help they can get and that's what Green Ivy provides at very reasonable rate. Their editing services are most exceptional. Not only the editing team is experienced but they also have a gentle yet very effective approach towards the author they are working with. This not only makes authors comfortable but also boosts their productivity. Their writing services include line editing, full copy editing and ghost writing.

However green ivy books review reveals that the company is also very serious about cover designing and illustrations. That's why it has nurtured a team of talented artists providing aesthetically pleasing cover pages to their clients' liking. The company boasts a sound marketing and promotion team working hard to promote books both online and offline. Green Ivy has developed different customized marketing plans that clients can choose from as per their budget. The plan includes printing and promoting books online as well as offline. Clients can also choose to publish physical and eBook copies with both types promoted on several online and offline channels for wider market reach.

Considering many difficulties faced by first time and self-publishing authors the company takes initiative to promote their books through as many online and offline channels as possible at the most reasonable rates. It provides a much needed platform towards a contract with reputed publishing firm in the country. During the green ivy books review it was found that some its clients/ authors have received contract offers from reputed publishing firms in US. And all these services are offered with utmost confidentiality and security so you don't have to worry about your pitch being stolen by someone else.

More Details :- <http://www.greenivybooks.com>