

Predators and Prey

“For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.” Rev. 19:10. Our hearts rejoice as we learn the ways the Holy Spirit draws us to Jesus. Jesus was the fulfillment of many Biblical prophecies. And He helps us to fulfill many Bible prophecies today!

Yes, prophecy is more than just historical proof of Jesus as Messiah. It is a daily revealing of Jesus to us by the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit's function to glorify God and reveal Jesus to us. Jesus said that when the promised Comforter, the Holy Spirit, would come to the Church, He would testify of Jesus and reveal His will!

Prophecy has been called the history of the future. In this moment of prophecy, in which we live, there are many topics one can discuss. After praying about what the Lord wanted for this week, He told me to continue on the topic of Predators and Prey..

There are different levels of application and understanding in this. There is one level for the individual where, in some surprising moments, we have angelic protection from predators. It may be related or not related to prophecy. This is what I will talk about first.

And then we have a second level where we are to defend – in the spiritual and material realms – ourselves and others from seen and unseen predators. What is our Christian basis for this? We will also discuss this Divine “wisdom in war” with today's seen and unseen predators.

Thirdly, we will discuss how we are to be “Positive Predators,” especially in finding and assisting the Lost Tribes of Israel, as they are prophesied to return to the Holy Land to meet their Messiah.

This is included in our discussion on end-times predators for which there are prophesied warnings. While these warnings are prophesied, with outcomes which are eventually inevitable, we do have tremendous free will to be active with or to ignore these, to be actors or spectators in our end-times drama!

Finally, we will discuss how to take a stand against the digital predators of today, where Satan strives for surrogate omniscience in real time, to control and perhaps pounce on us. We will see how to stand firm against all this and avoid the wiles of the Devil.

And through all these examples and levels, we must remember, “No weapon formed against you shall prosper” and that the Devil is a defeated foe!

So let's go to our first level where, for the individual in some surprising moments, we have angelic protection from predators.. It may be related or not related to prophecy. It may be seen or unseen. Let's begin!

A few years ago, just a few blocks from here, I was standing on a front lawn. Suddenly, I noticed someone's pit bull had gotten loose and was racing toward me! As Pastor Wendy reminded us last week, when you are confronted by a predator, you stand. And so I did. For over ten minutes, it insanely ran a tight circle around me and I think there was a good chance it was demon possessed. But it could get no closer. With demonic motivation I'm sure this pit bull predator wanted to rip me to shreds! But it could get no closer – and before long its young owner grabbed its leash and apologized. I have no doubt there was angelic protection going on.

Around that time, a similar thing happened in the same neighborhood. A security dog, about the size of a small horse – you know, the size of small war horse the original Vikings used – this powerful security dog, maybe from a construction site, had broken away from where ever it was guarding. It easily had the strength to break away! It had a large red cloth tied around its neck, to show it was clearly a danger. It ran up to about 3 feet of me and gave an angry growl – but then some unseen force motivated the predator to go on its way.

One day, while I was in Jerusalem doing research for my book, New Age

Deception in the Holy Land, an interviewee told me of a teenage girl, recently rescued from the New Age and who had become a Christian. One day, while shopping in Mahane Yehuda in Jerusalem, the girl was spied by her former New Age captors who wanted to approach her, but for some reason couldn't get closer than 20 feet from her. Once again, predators were held at bay by unseen forces, no doubt by unseen angels insuring he or she who the Son sets free is free indeed, as John 8:36 tells us.

So this first level is where we are defended from predators by unseen forces.

Speaking of dogs, while we're on the subject of predators. A few years ago, in the US every county requested donated money from its residents to purchase at least one drug-sniffing dog. Often the average donation was $150. What American citizens didn't know is that Communists almost always pre-position things before a takeover - and often at the expense of the citizens they intend to subjugate. These drug-sniffing dogs were trained in Holland and Yugoslavia for the New World Order. When delivered to each county, their new owners were told the dogs were taught 30 commands – and these commands were passed on. But this was not true. The dogs were actually taught 60 commands, so when foreign troops come into play, the other 30 commands are used in a war scenario on Americans.

How does one stop these kinds of predators? One example is given us from WWII Denmark. When the Danish resistance were hiding and protecting the Jewish people from Nazis and their war dogs, they used a mixture of blood and cocaine put on their path. And as the predator dogs sniffed it, they were neutralized and put out of commission. Many Jewish lives were saved this way!

This is a lead in to our second level....

Our second level is where we are to defend – in the spiritual and material realms – ourselves and others from seen and unseen predators. Did you know you can actually attract predators in the unseen world? Let me give you five very quick examples!

I had a friend who was a lawyer in Switzerland. One day while I was there, we just returned from a prayer meeting, when he told me about demons coming into his home and asked what I would do. I asked, "Do you have any items in the house that would attract them?" "Yes," he said. "I have a South American human sacrificial knife." To which I responded, "Demons are always attracted to things they have inspired. You need to get rid of it."

And so he did. The demons never returned. The routine predators were gone.

One day in Antwerp, Belgium, a family who were plagued by demons asked us to come over. For years, the father had been a magician. His home was filled with occultic magical items. After talking with him, he decided to get rid of them, but their little boy started crying. I asked, "Why are you crying? Don't you want to get rid of them?" "Oh," he said. "I don't mind getting rid of them. That's for Jesus. It's just that we spent so much money on them." We then marched all his items of magic down to the Schelde River and threw them in.

And now the routine predators attracted to those items, were gone.

Also in Belgium, a very internationally-active family we were staying with family we were staying with – the husband just returned from China. He brought back all kinds of items that, somehow, made the atmosphere very, very heavy. It was unusual because they were a very good Spirit-filled Christian family with a wonderful home atmosphere! But now it was very heavy and almost unbearable...

Needless to say, the Chinese statues and robes with designs and other things attracted the predator demons. In China, they often say Buddhist prayers over their merchandise warehouses, to be protected by what are actually demons. Most items in Toys 'R Us come from these warehouses in China. In Canada, many face masks, respirators and COVID tests were first stored in these Chinese warehouses.

But this day in Belgium, once they were removed, the wonderful Holy Spirit sweetness of the home returned! When the items were removed, we went to each room re-dedicating it with Scripture. How nice to have light and love and sweetness back in their home!

Quickly I will tell you about a couple in Kansas, who came up for prayer after I'd just finished speaking. Their home had trouble with predatory demonic activity, but they didn't know what was causing it. Suddenly, the Holy Spirit told me to tell them, "Look under your basement stairs." They did so and told me there was the source. They got rid of the items and the demon predators never came back.

And last but not least, Landy Johnson had a good friend who was a chiropractor. One evening, he called me and said, "Why don't you and Cal come over for Safeway pie?" Those were his words, "Safeway pie." "I'm in a bad situation I need to explain to you."

So Cal and I went over and the chiropractor explained, "Every Monday night I have a family of demons come over about 10:30. They've been getting rowdy so I told them if they are to come here, they have to sit on the couch and behave themselves. But now I want them to stop coming in."

"Do you have any items from other religions that might attract them," I said, eating my Safeway pie. "Only in this room," he said, opening its doors. "But I couldn't get rid of them. They were all gifts." And as he opened the door, there was an entire wall of masks and statues from various places in Africa. I emphasized he needed to get rid of them, but he insisted they were gifts and couldn't possibly throw them out!

Still, I quoted to him 2 Tim 2:20-21: "But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work."

Well, the Word did not return void. Several months later, in the Royal Fork restaurant, the chiropractor came up to me and Valerie and said, “Well, I finally did what you said! And they never came back!”

So there you have a very quick five examples. You see the point. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you anything in your house that may attract demon predators. It may be something very little, like a Masonic pin your grandfather or great grandfather may have had. It may be aged kids games like Dungeons and Dragons or dubious card games. It may be an item that was stolen that you know nothing about.

It may even be certain newspapers or magazines from publishers who actually wanted their buildings on ley lines, for demonic control and inspiration to produce their merchandise. In any event, pray for discernment about items in your home, going from room to room, and simply get rid of anything you have misgivings about. You'll be glad you did! And then in each room those things were in, just re-dedicate to the Lord with Scripture!

After doing these things, you'll find that level of demonic unseen predators has been dealt with... that level where we otherwise, unwittingly keep attracting them, through things we have around the home.

I just want to add that – actually, I want to emphasize - now that we're in the Christmas season, Toys 'R Us are more than flooded with items inspired by demons which attract demons. (It's interesting that the Communist Chinese dominate the Toys 'R Us products, as Marxism has always been a front for Satanism.) I did a video on these and you'll find it here: <https://www.brighteon.com/e92eb21a-ef0e-47ae-88f5-e051edc3f281> It is also at www.ChurchRemnantPower.com under Portal of Glory and then at the top. Please avail yourself of this Free resource!

Don't think I'm joking. I'll never forget the time a woman told of her young daughter coming in with a bloody hand. “Honey! What happened?” she begged to know. Holding up her bloody hand, the little girl cried, “Smurf bit me!” The things inspired by demons will attract demons. Don't go out of your way to buy them.

So much for spiritual predators. Let's take just a moment now to define the predators of the State and our Christian attitude toward them. The following is what anti-Christian govt. forces don't want you to know:

All Christians are obliged in conscience not to follow the directive of civil authorities when they are contrary to the demands of the moral order, to the fundamental rights of persons or the teachings of the Gospel. Refusing obedience to civil authorities, when their demands are contrary to those of an upright conscience, finds its justification in the distinction between serving God and serving the political community. "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's:" "We must obey God rather than men":

When citizens are under the oppression of a public authority which oversteps its competence, they should still not refuse to give or to do what is objectively demanded of them by the common good; but it is legitimate for them to defend their own rights and those of their fellow citizens against the abuse of this authority within the limits of the natural law and the Law of the Gospel.

In 1930 the French Christian philosopher, Jacques Maritain, published The Things That Are Not Caesar's. One chapter is entitled "Our First Duty to God." Once the present Canadian crisis in the Christian spirit is overcome - with our first duty to God renewed and permanently entrenched - we are then ready to challenge and confront the oppression of a public authority which oversteps its competence.

Do you see the need for Revival? Do you see the need for a Greater Harvest?

Is our 21st century enigma something new? Ecclesiastes 1:10 assures us, There is nothing new under the sun. Neither is anyone able to say: "Behold, this is new!" For it has already been brought forth in the ages that were before us. Two thousand years of Church history is, very simply, replete with the oppression of public authorities who overstepped their competence. But the historic continuity and nature of the true Church reigns to this day, while centuries of temporal public authorities are long forgotten in the dust bin of history.

Yes, over many centuries, Christians have watched temporary oppressors come and go. The outcome for our generation will be the same as theirs! Yes, it will be the same!

We as Christians recognize our and our neighbour's right to follow his or her conscience in matters of belief and conduct, provided the exercise of such right does not involve injury to social order or morality. When responsible Christians today expose the COVID hoax pandemic – and its many heinous effects on society – including the suicide rate related to COVID as 80% higher than actual COVID deaths – the anti-Christian state then falsely accuses responsible Christians of being injurious (to the socially-engineered anti-Christian Global Reset order, which is de-populating in many ways along the way).

Again. Over many centuries, Christians have watched temporary oppressors come and go. The outcome for our generation will be the same as theirs! The Bible assures us of this! For in Daniel's prophecy for our day, the ten toes on Nebuchadnezzar's statue – representing the ten world regions – are of iron and clay. Clay represents instability – in our case, a positive instability – clearly showing temporary oppressors in some regions will not get their way.

But until Christians rise up and effectively counter our Soros-funded traitors, our would-be controllers will increasingly attempt to penalize Christians for following his or her conscience, which is persecution. Or by using unfair means to induce Christians to conform their consciences to that of the attempted draconian Global Reset, which is proselytism. “Unfair” in our day means include prohibiting air travel, etc.

Clearly, when the rights of conscience are denied, the result is an unauthorized interference between the soul and its Creator, and man's essential liberty is violated. It is plain that no one- no politician- on his own account has a right to do this! The choice Christians are again confronted with is nothing new under the sun: to oppose the State or oppose the Divine. This choice has happened many, many times in history! Once again, Christians are called upon to deny State absolutism, which immorally claims the obedience of the minds and hearts of Canadian Christians.

It is a privilege to defend one's rights and those of fellow citizens against the growing abuse from the present Canadian authority – as we defend rights within the limits of the true natural law and the Law of the Gospel. “We must obey God rather than men” and prayerfully and with action relegate these Marxist predators to the dust bin of history. And we must do it quickly.

Now we'll discuss those end-times predators for which there are prophesied warnings. While these warnings are prophesied, with outcomes which are eventually inevitable, we do have tremendous free will to be active with .../ or to ignore these... to be actors... or spectators in our end-times drama!

In one of the prophecies for our day, in Jeremiah 16:16 the Lord Himself says, “Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.”

“And after will I send for many hunters.” Wow. The Lord Himself does this. But first He sends for many fishers. This is to fulfill Psalm 147:2: “He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.” And He is now fulfilling Isaiah 11:12: To “gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.”

Now, just before the predators, the hunters, are released – they could be in the form of Communist Chinese troops or ISIS and other terrorists, of MS-13 and Islamic State, of Russian and Iranian sleepers, of Luciferian Antifa and BLM – before he sends for many of these predator hunters, He still generously gives us this time of Harvest and of grace before judgment – that is, grace before the predator hunters – as fishers go forth one more time, often in both capacities of a spiritual harvest and of encouraging the Jewish people to aliyah now, in fulfillment of prophecy. He is still endeavoring to bring them from the north, south, east and west.

Our final moment of history for the fishers focuses on two groups: Those who are known to be Jewish and are easily recognizable. And these who are of the ten tribes of Israel and who are not easily recognizable: This is where the challenge comes in. (Dale for overhead)

A long-time friend from the Joint Chiefs of Staff High-Security Evaluations, a real lover of Israel, attempted to calculate how many Jewish people in North America would not respond to the fishers. His final calculation was 87% would not. I've often challenged him on this and told him the figure is too high. But he still stands by his calculations and is convinced 87% will not return.

Tragically, if true, this means 87% will not respond to the fishers and will be left to the hunters, already pre-positioned in North America.

Now, as fishers, it's much easier for you and I to first attempt to prayerfully influence those who are still here, to aliyah and return to Israel. Especially when we see the Globalist Reset eventually includes the confiscation of all private property. This is one more impetus influencing the recognizably Jewish people to sell now and transfer their assets to Israel, while they are still able, to realize a maximum return.

But then we have the issue of the Lost Tribes of Israel. These are more of a challenge, as we keep these in mind, as we are the final fishers before the release of the hunter predators. For a moment, let's look at the history of the lost tribes:

The ten lost tribes of Israel were carried away by Salmanasar, in the reign of Hezekiah, more than six hundred and fifty years before Christ.

While it is alleged Paleo-Indians entered North America - via the Bering Strait - in the Palaeolithic Age ending in 10,000 BC, we see the ten lost tribes of Israel would have crossed the Bering Strait in 650 BC, which was 350 years after the end of the Neolithic Age.

The king of Assyria, in the sixth year of Hezekiah, carried away Israel beyond the Caspian Sea." II Kings 43:2 reveals: "And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria and put them in Halah and Habor, by the river Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes."

Now, the river of the Medes is Gihon, which enters the Caspian Sea on the south, through ancient Media. There was no other way for the colony of Hebrews than toward the Bering Strait. That journey would have required one year and six months. The Bering Strait is forty miles and is even now frozen over in winter, and much more would it be then.

On the border of Alaska and the Yukon, Hebrew-named Mount Elias is 17,900 feet high at the north end of the Rocky Mountains and in north latitude sixty degrees. On the border of Alaska and the Yukon, it must have been named in remembrance of Elijah upon Mount Carmel. "Nothing would have been more natural than that these exiled Hebrews should have called it a name which they almost venerated," writes Willson.

(Forget British Israelism which is anti-semitic and claims the lost tribes went west. There is more than abundant evidence to show they went east and across the Bering Strait.)

Going further south, through and then south of Alberta, the names of rivers are more clearly Hebrew. You can read more about this in The Ten Tribes of Israel by Timothy Jenkins.

So while we are in the final important moments of being fishers, influencing known Jewish people to aliyah now, we are to always keep in mind and be mindful of the ten lost tribes... many today whose Jewishness is even lost to them. This is not as difficult as it sounds. All the time, people who visit Israel for the first time take a DNA test in Tel Aviv, to actually find they are Jewish, but never knew it! In my book New Creations in Israel, this happened to Yona Ben Levi, for example.

Please look for a moment at the photo above. I found this two years ago in Edmonton, in August. I believe it is of the lost tribes who crossed the Bering Strait and came through this area. I contacted the Israel Antiquities Authority with this and other photos. How did I recognize this?

Beginning at age 11, I was in a monthly local coin club of mainly adults, along with my friend who was the sheriff's son. I was very familiar with coins at an early age. In later years, I cleaned hundreds of uncleaned coins – from ancient Greece and Rome - with an electrolysis technique that worked very well. So when I found these on the ground in northern Edmonton, just south of Yellowhead Trail, I could easily recognize them by their size, shape and characteristics as uncleaned coins. All have faces facing right and most have traces of silver on hair, robes, and so forth.

So the lost tribes are walking around us. They may be rubbing shoulders with us. They may not know their heritage. But God knows who they are and He will point them out to you. There are many languages of indigenous peoples that are filled with Hebrew words – in America and especially in the languages of the northern indigenous peoples! If you find one here and there you suspect of being of the lost tribes, diplomatically encourage them to get a reliable DNA test and God will certainly bless you for it!

Finally, we'll now quickly discuss how to take a stand against the digital predators of today, where Satan strives for surrogate omniscience in real time, to control and perhaps pounce on us. We will see how to stand firm against all this and avoid the wiles of the Devil.

In 2nd Corinthians 3:17 we read, “Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.” God wants us to preserve and keep the freedom He has given us. Scripture also tells us to “Expose the fruitless deeds of darkness” (Eph. 5:11) So here we go:

In our day, Satan strives to control us in a plethora of digital ways. We must be mindful of these in order to routinely defeat the spirit of the age – and to carry on God's purposes for our life. These attempted controls by digital surveillance include:

- Audio controls. Two decades ago Motorola and Russia did a joint venture for “on the hook” technology for your phone. This is their ability to listen in even though your phone appears inactive. Today this includes both land line and cell phones. Cell phones can now listen to you, though appearing inactive, at 900% the volume where you are speaking with someone. And cable modems on your TV can be flashed to also hear your room conversations. And remember, for years already, beginning with Samsung, “TV watching” now refers to your TV watching and listening to you. Whether we want to acknowledge it or not, these are all digital predators.
- Your response: When in sensitive conversation, simply unplug your landline phone, close the door on your cell phone (in another room or obscure it on your person), and be mindful of what TV modems are capable of doing. For sensitive conversations outside, do not wear any metal – such as eye glasses, belt buckles, etc. - as satellite can pick up your conversations from vibrations on the metal. When speaking inside your home, a rifle-shaped device the RCMP has active for years (many RCMP will wittingly and unwittingly be following the orders of the NWO) can pick up voice vibrations from window glass. So sensitive conversations are best done in an area where there is little or no glass. Note: Dictatorships always fear groups of 3 & 4 because they cannot be infiltrated. It's desirable these groups routinely get together to communicate in the complete absence of listening and tracking devices.

- Tracking controls. In World War II, German and Jewish women were routinely paying to be spied on, when they paid a tax on the fruits and vegetables they purchased from the markets. This tax went to fund the SS and their surveillance activities. And so it is today: Everyone who owns a cell phone is paying monthly to be listened to – and tracked.
- Additionally, everywhere you go in society there lurks a predator surveillance with facial recognition, eye recognition, voice recognition, etc. Anything electronic used for communicating – like laptops, tablets, ipads, cell phones – can be tracked. Even if your cell phone battery appears dead, there is a second battery no one knows about allowing trackers to trace you in 11 seconds.
- Your response. When ever possible, stay away from or spend minimal time in these suspected areas. Use privacy pouches for your cell phones when ever possible and the same shield for your laptops, etc. Here is the Url from which you can order these. Needless to say, all these items to protect you from illegal tracking have a waiting list, so do order yours as soon as convenient! <https://www.infowarsstore.com/catalogsearch/result/?q=cell+phone> Ideally, the best areas to quickly use laptops, tablets, cell phones, etc. are in crowded areas where many others are using the same: During peak hours for coffee shops, airports, libraries, etc.
- My brother who was trained at Langley and is now in the US Embassy in Jordan, is now in the process of removing his digital footprint from the Internet. This is important for everyone to do now. Unsubscribe from all the emails you don't need. Cancel accounts and subscriptions you don't need. Remove yourself from forums, chat groups, etc. Take your name off everything including your email addresses. There are now strong warnings to get off Twitter and Facebook. Strong warnings. Tens of thousands of these users are now migrating to Parler.com and Signal.org. Tell all your friends and contacts to meet you there! Take all sensitive information off hard drives and keep only on detached external drives. The best private browsers are now Brave and Iridium. Shield your online identity with a 2-year subscription to VirtualShield.com. Change the location every day. Needless to say, there is power in secrecy.

- In public places, it's sometimes useful to change clothes two or even three times, when in challenging conditions. In airports, train and bus stations, this may be helpful. In this way, predatory surveillance often loses track of you. Ideally, when going in public places, leave your cell phone in its privacy pouch in the car. This minimizes the chances of contact tracing and of your being “suspected” of being near a “suspected” COVID case.
- Tracking your car. Since 1982, vehicles with electronic ignitions have transponders which can track you. Also on vehicles there are magnetized serial number plates – on the panel behind the engine and near your driver's door – which can be tracked. GPS gadgets and cell phones in your car are tracked. Avoid check stops. The latest trackers are Huawei 5G and satellite surveillance. And if Smart cars come into usage, you will want to avoid them and public transit, now being equipped for Agenda 2030.
- Your response. In private vehicles, measures can be taken. The magnetized serial number plates are easily conquered: Simply take the foil from chewing gum wrappers and affix them to the serial number plates, with their shiny side outward. Already in some NWO-controlled areas, it is against the law to do this. But in challenging times there may be no other alternative, especially when lives are at stake. Cell phones should be kept in their privacy pouches – as well as anything for communications in your vehicle. Also useful is to take those red/silver synthetic blankets and tailor to fit the vehicle top and sides, inside the door panels and above the ceiling material, with the silver side facing outward. Leave open space above for driver. (This is also very helpful for the ceiling in your basement or part of your basement you want to keep private.)

- For years in North America, Communist Chinese troops have been using choppers for night drills and when disembarking use whistle commands (which North American soldiers do not do). These and other unfriendly choppers can detect the heat signatures of people in their homes. MSM choppers are also sub-contracted by the NWO to spy on, harass and psy-op Christians and patriots with body-heat detecting devices.
- Your response. The best antidote for this, especially in winter, is for all to gather closely around an indoor wood-burning stove and usually the heat signature is interpreted as merely the stove.

The bottom line is Satan has always wanted to be like God with surrogate omniscience and omnipresence. He resorts to these 21st-century devices in an attempt to achieve this. However, God lets you defeat these technologically cutting-edge predators with both angelic protection and with knowledge, so his people do not perish for lack of knowledge. He needs you to be actors in the end-times drama! Which is Now.

In Luke 10:18 Jesus said, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.” Lightning is today's symbol for electricity. Be vigilant to not let anything electrical cause your fall! You have been lovingly forewarned today. For there's nothing Satan wants more than to see you conformed to his image – and to compromise the end-times plans God has for you and your relationship to others. Stay in the Presence of Jesus and you will be safe and secure....
